Travel one of Celebration's palm tree lined boulevards to this magnificent estate with elements of the Key West style that is nestled between two lush nature preserves and rear facing water views. This luxurious home welcomes you with a grand wrap around Verandah as you enter the grand foyer featuring a spiral black wrought iron stairwell framed with white custom paneled walls and a dazzling crystal tear drop chandelier. The expansive floor plan showcases the fresh open design flowing seamlessly into the gathering room with designer Carrara marble detail over the gas fireplace. The heart of the home embraces the white on white transitional Gourmet kitchen with a large granite top Island as the centerpiece creating a gathering space for all. The owner's wing includes a morning room and butler's buddy, a spa-like bathroom with double showers and a large oval tub perfect for sharing, triple crown molding, private screened porch with breathtaking nature and water views, the man's dressing
